

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

This copy was last updated on 9th of September, 2020 by Taylor Broughton.

Contents

Section A	2
Introduction	2
Aim and Purpose	2
Information Governance Framework Principles for Just Human Therapy	3
Section B	4
Privacy Notice: Use of information	4
Retention Schedule	5
Data Processing	8
Section C	10
Data Breach	10
Subject Access Request	10
Right to Erasure	11
Complaints	11
Safeguarding your privacy	11

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Section A

Introduction

Data held by Just Human Therapy will be held lawfully and for the retention periods set out in section B of this policy document.

This document refers to:

- Written Documents
- Spreadsheets
- Hardcopy case notes and files
- Database entries
- Images
- Recordings
- Emails
- Text messages
- Supervision notes
- Visits to the organisations website
- Social media communication

Aim and Purpose

The purpose of this document is to ensure that Just Human Therapy has a framework that ensures the rights and freedom of individuals in relation to their personal data (Article 1) and adheres to best practice in the management of client information and business records.

Information Governance sets out the way in which information collated by an organisation is managed and ensures that any information collected;

- is the right information
- is in the right place
- at the right time
- with the right people
- for the right reasons

This is a live document and may be updated at any time to reflect changes in law or growth of the business, and therefore should be revisited regularly to check for any updates. Just Human Therapy is fully committed to ensuring clients privacy and data protection rights.

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Information Governance Framework Principles for Just Human Therapy

1. I follow the ICO's Office Codes of Practice.
2. Any changes to the business processes and/or operations will be planned and will comply with the framework to ensure any risks to personal and sensitive information are minimised.
3. Any data collected is solely for the purpose of providing a person-centred service to an individual client.
4. All technology [Google products including google drive] used to store or facilitate information and communication is maintained according to the Data Retention Policy for Just Human Therapy.
5. All records are identifiable, locatable, retrievable, and intelligible according to regulations set out by GDPR.
6. Any electronic devices where personal or sensitive, confidential information is held will be password protected or locked via fingerprint and have 2 stage encryption to access them documents.
7. Procedures have been put in place to ensure the General Data Protection Regulations are met. These can be found in Section C.

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Section B

Privacy Notice: Use of information

In accordance with this data retention schedule there may be occasions when data is not destroyed due to ongoing investigation, litigation or enquiry. The data will be deleted upon confirmation that it is no longer required.

On some occasions anonymised personal data will be retained whereby a client has provided a testimonial for use on the organisations website. When data is non-identifiable GDPR law is no longer applicable. [Non-identifiable means that if this data was left on a bus, no one, including the data subject would be able to identify that this data was relating to them.]

- Personal information is collated and stored in electronic locked folder
- Each client is allocated a numerical code for any process notes collected.
- All therapeutic process notes are kept separately from any contact details or identifying information.
- All emails will contain a privacy statement.

Under the General Data Protection and Retention (2018) legislation, regarding how your personal data is processed, all individuals have;

- the right to be informed;
- the right of access;
- the right to rectification;
- the right to erasure;
- the right to restrict processing;
- the right to data portability;
- the right to object; and
- the right not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling.

Please note that Just Human Therapy does not use automated decision-making tools, including profiling.

Website visitors

When an individual visits <https://justhumantherapy.com/>, I use Google analytics who are considered a third party service, to collect information about what visitors do when they click on my website, e.g. which page they visit the most. Google analytics only collect non-identifiable data which means I or they cannot identify who is visiting. Just Human Therapy will always be transparent when it comes to collecting personal data and will be clear about how that data is processed.

Wix

The Just Human Therapy website was built with Wix and uses some add ons from Wix, including their payment processor. Here is Wix's Privacy Policy: <https://www.wix.com/about/privacy>

Social Media

Just Human Therapy uses Instagram at @notbrokenjusthuman. Instagram's Privacy Notice can be found here: <https://help.instagram.com/155833707900388>

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Paypal

If you use Paypal to pay for a session they will store a record of the payment. A copy of their privacy policy is accessed here <https://www.paypal.com/uk/webapps/mpp/ua/privacy-prev>

Retention Schedule

Information Asset	Information Owner Asset	Retention	Trigger for Disposal
Email (including sent items)	Head of organisation	Annual review period every September any remaining live data untouched until following review period.	End of retention period
Contact details held on mobile devices	Head of organisation	All messages deleted as soon as possible, contact information is under client code deleted after last session.	End of retention period
Recordings	Head of organisation	5 years or earlier if consent is withdrawn	End of retention period
Paper Diaries	Head of organisation	1 year the period in which its use ends.	End of retention period
Policies	Head of organisation	Until new policy has been put into place	End of retention period
Client records including session notes, initial consultation notes and client overview form	Head of organisation	5 years after final session has ended.	End of retention period

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Safeguarding records	Head of organisation	In accordance with the current organisations insurance policy, 5 years after final treatment session has ended, unless superseded by new insurance policy.	End of retention period
Waiting lists	Head of organisation	Annual review period every September, old waiting list destroyed and new waiting list developed with any remaining live data transferred to new live document.	End of retention period
Tax returns	Head of organisation	6 years from the end of the financial period to which they pertain to.	End of retention period
Complaints	Head of organisation	2 years from complaint being resolved	End of retention period
Right to Erasure Request	Head of Organisation	8 years from request being submitted and completed.	End of retention period
Subject Access Request	Head of organisation	5 years alongside session notes, or plus 2 years from case closure if request is made after 6 years of storing data.	End of retention period

Hard copy data will be destroyed via a cross shredding machine owned by the organisation, electronic data will be permanently deleted.

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Data Processing

What are the lawful basis for processing data at Just Human Therapy?

- The individual has given clear consent for their data to be processed for the specific purpose/s detailed in the contract stored in their personal file.
- Processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person.
- Processing is necessary for your legitimate interests;

1. Processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation shall be prohibited.

2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply if one of the following applies:

(h) processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services on the basis of Union or Member State law or pursuant to contract with a health professional and subject to the conditions and safeguards referred to in paragraph 3;

3. Personal data referred to in paragraph 1 may be processed for the purposes referred to in point (h) of paragraph 2 when those data are processed by or under the responsibility of a professional subject to the obligation of professional secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies or by another person also subject to an obligation of secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies.

This means that Just Human Therapy does not require consent to hold your data to provide a service but does require your consent to contact you for specific purposes. Participating in the service by attending more than one appointment implies that you agree with the Terms and Conditions provided to you at the commencement of service delivery.

Description of processing

The following is a broad description of the way this organisation/data controller processes personal information. Clients wishing to understand how their own personal information is processed may choose to read the FAQ's / Terms and Conditions for treatment document, which compliments the policies detailed here.

Reasons/purposes for processing information

Just Human Therapy processes personal information to enable the provision of Psychotherapy and counselling, to advertise services and to maintain accounts and records.

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Type/classes of information processed

Just Human Therapy processes information relevant to the above reasons/purposes. This information may include:

- personal details
- family, lifestyle and social circumstances
- goods and services
- financial details
- employment and education details

Just Human Therapy also processes sensitive classes of information that may include:

- physical or mental health details
- racial or ethnic origin
- religious or other beliefs of a similar nature
- offences and alleged offences

Just Human Therapy processes personal information about:

- clients
- business contacts
- students being mentored
- professional advisers

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Section C

Data Breach

All personal and sensitive data held by Just Human Therapy is held securely. Electronic data stored on a computer is stored on a password protected computer, in password protected accounts held on the C: Drive of the computer. This supports the ability to retrieve data in the event of faults.

In the case of a data breach Just Human Therapy shall comply with the regulations set out under Article 33 of the GDPR;

- 1. In the case of a personal data breach, ICO will be notified without undue delay and, where feasible, unless the personal data breach is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of the individual. Where the notification to the ICO is not made within 72 hours, it shall be accompanied by reasons for the delay.
- 2. The notification referred to in paragraph 1 shall at least:
  - (a) describe the nature of the personal data breach including where possible, the approximate number of data subjects concerned and the categories (e.g. sessions notes, phone numbers) and approximate number of personal data records concerned;
  - (b) communicate the name and contact details of the data controller where more information can be obtained;
  - (c) describe the likely consequences of the personal data breach;
  - (d) describe the measures taken or proposed to be taken by the controller to address the personal data breach, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.
- 4. Where, and in so far as, it is not possible to provide the information at the same time, the information may be provided in phases without undue further delay.
- 5. The controller shall document any personal data breaches, comprising the facts relating to the personal data breach, its effects and the remedial action taken. That documentation shall enable the supervisory authority to verify compliance with this Article.
- 6. In the event that a data breach will likely cause a risk to the rights and freedoms of client data, the data controller must communicate the nature of the breach in clear, concise and plain language, to the client/s involved, without delay.
- 7. If a breach occurs but the data controller has gone to appropriate lengths to protect the data held on the client (e.g. password encryption of electronic files), or if the data controller has taken subsequent action to prevent the risk (e.g. immediately blocking a mobile device) then notifying the client will not be required.

Just Human Therapy: Information Governance Policies and Procedures

Subject Access Request

A Subject Access Requests (SAR) permits individuals to request a copy of their personal information.

A SAR must be acted upon within one month, at the most within two months, any longer and reasonable reason must be provided. There are no fees unless there is a disproportionate fee to the organisation for sending out the information. Application for SAR should be held alongside session records, unless application was made after six years of the end of treatment. In which case the SAR will be held for a further two years after closure of SAR.

A SAR request will include information we hold about you, Just Human Therapy will:

- give you a description of it;
- tell you why we are holding it;
- tell you who it could be disclosed to; and
- let you have a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

SAR requests should be put in writing to Just Human Therapy. A response may be provided informally over the telephone with your agreement, or formally by letter or email. If any information held is noted to be incorrect an individual can request a correction be made to their own personal information. If you wish for your data to be provided to another service provider, you may also request this in writing. I may have a legal basis to continue to hold your data and will notify you of this if that is the case. Any requests should be made in writing to Just Human Therapy at taylor@justhumantherapy.com.

Right to Erasure

Any person may put in a request for their personal data to be removed (the 'right to be forgotten' or the 'right to erasure'). In this instance hard copy data will be shredded using a cross shredding machine owned by the organisation and any electronic data will be permanently deleted. The client will be notified of the completion. The request for deletion of data and the confirmation of completion will be held securely until eight years after the request was made. In some cases, such as an ongoing court case, Just Human Therapy may need to turn down the request for deletion.

Complaints

Just Human Therapy hopes to meet the highest quality standards when processing personal and sensitive data. Complaints can help identify areas for improvement and therefore Just Human Therapy would welcome you raising any concerns you have.

These Information Governance Policy documents were created to be as transparent and understandable as possible. It will not be completely exhaustive of all aspects of data collection.

If you feel you would like to make a complaint about how your personal and sensitive data is handled by Just Human Therapy you can contact Just Human Therapy directly. In the event that I cannot resolve your complaint to your satisfaction you can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113.

Safeguarding your privacy

In the event of my death or sudden illness, my trusted allocated counsellor colleague will contact existing clients and archive any client files in accordance with General Data Protection Regulations.